REMARKS

Pam,

notes like were boxed in on this one. Of course if we don't let people know what will happen to our "worky friends" we can have them removed. Over to you all.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Logistics Services Division, OL

FROM: Chief, Space Maintenance and Facilities
Branch/LSD/OL

SUBJECT: Removal of animals for the site of the New Building - Headquarters

1. I contacted the National Wildlife Federation, 790-4000, and was advised that they did not provide the traps or the service to live capture wildlife. They did suggest that I call the Fairfax Animal Control, 830-3310, or the Fairfax Animal Shelter, 730-1100.

2. I made contact with Marie Fairley, Game Warden - Fairfax Animal Control. She said her office would provide the service if desired. The only problem is that any ground hogs, fox, skunks or raccoons that are trapped will be put to sleep because of the rabies problem in Fairfax County.

3. I gave Ms. Fairley,  name and said he would be contacting her.
